To request full scripts and project treatments and/or proposals, you must first register your details HERE. Generally, we do not release this material unless the request comes through a recognised production company or industry organisation, or from an established contact.

If you work in film and would like to submit your CV , or are a writer who would like to submit material, click HERE .

As a development unit, we have no permanent positions available but we keep talent and freelance production/post-production personnel on our database. We regret that we are unable to respond personally to every submission.

Anything you submit will be treated with the strictest confidence and we will not release any of your details to any third party.
